Why do you want to be an egg donor and if you had a message for your recipient what would it be?	I would really love to help and make a difference in someones life.
How do you best describe yourself?	I am a shy person, can't initiate conversation especially with strangers but you'll really love talking to me once you get to know me. My friends say I'm a mystery they still don't understand me. I have a soft spot for elderly people and children and I spend most of my days talking care of them. I have the habit of over thinking things and because of that I've never loved doing the same thing all over again I've always believed that there's something better than the one I have so that has driven me to look for more. Don't get me wrong this has never caused me to be greedy I've learnt to be content with all I have. I always seek to learn a hand when needed and never will I want to be the cause of someone's sadness. I think that's about it, this sums up almost everything.
